

Teacher Reflection Page: Michael Prudent

Grade Level: Middle and High School

Use this reflection page to explore the thoughts and ideas expressed by Michael Prudent, a gay man in a committed relationship and a father, in the Deeper Look Video about how to talk to kids about relationships and homosexuality.

1. In what ways does your school support teaching students about healthy relationships?

2. How do you explain love to a young person?

4. Why does Mr. Prudent think that young people's conceptions of sex distort their understanding of homosexuality and heterosexuality?

3. How do you teach students about the components of a healthy relationship? How can you connect instruction in your discipline to instruction about healthy relationships?
